

Library Basement Sound Map 9/6/19

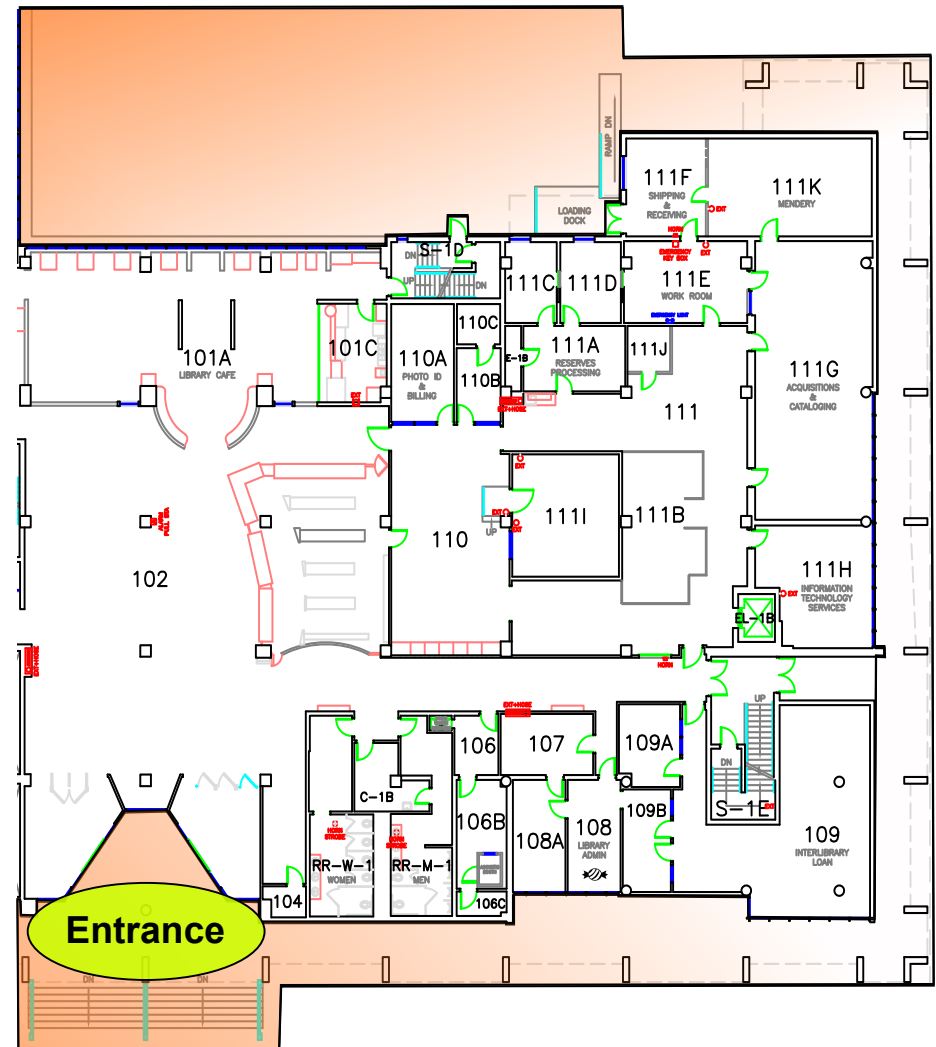

Key

 Estimated current loudness

Basement

Progress: Drilling on the East wall will begin mid to late next week. Jackhammering and drilling on the North side first floor is scheduled to begin around September 30th. Jack hammering grade beams and drilling at footings along the South side of the building will continue through the end of the month. Occupants should expect some measure of noise disturbance during this time. Further updates pending.

First Floor